

SHE DEVIL REMIX

Curator: Cristiana Perrella

Centro per l'Arte Contemporanea Luigi Pecci - Prato
26 of July – 20 of September 2018

Opening thursday 26 of July h. 6.30 p.m.

On show at Centro Pecci from 26 July to 20 September, SHE DEVIL Remix, is a selection of the video review SHE DEVIL, in its tenth edition this year. The project started in 2006 and is the brainchild of Stefania Miscetti, director of the Cultural Association Mantellate – Studio Stefania Miscetti in Rome, who invited Italian and international artists and curators to take part in a survey, carried out annually, on female identity read through the language of video. Characterised by transversality, a variety of viewpoints and use of the moving image alternating between documentaries and genuine artists' films, the review presents the best of the international scene over the years, from Europe to the Americas, and from Africa to Asia, bringing together well-known authors as well as newcomers and offering an open platform where even very different paths of investigation of female representation are compared from both an artistic and curatorial perspective.

The title of the review, SHE DEVIL was taken from a Marvel heroine and the famous film by Susan Seidelman from 1989, and ironically alludes to the diabolical and bizzare spirit with which the artistic experience investigates and passes through daily life, often proposing an unexpected subversion. The videos presented at Centro Pecci represent a sort of "best of" of the review, selected by Cristiana Perrella, who celebrates the continuity, consistency and freshness of a research path that, over ten years, has kept the attention on topics that now seem more relevant than ever such as female identity, the body as place of representation and significance, the abuse of power against women, and personal experience which rises to a universal dimension. SHE DEVIL has been presented over the years at various museums such as MNAC, National Museum of Contemporary Art, Bucarest, (2009), Macro, Rome, (2012), National Gallery of Art, Vilnius (2017), and Calcografia Nazionale, Rome (2018).
